DAHLIAS

The beauty of spring and summer vanishes into a mist of hazy recollection when the Dahlias in our garden make their debut. Pleasing shades of orange and scarlet, yellows as fiery as molten gold, vie their beauty with glorious autumn shades in mellow and warm combinations of rose, salmon-pink, and orchid-mauve—colors and hues no artist could ever hope to portray in their full beauty.

Dahlias are easily grown and are suited for planting in small as well as in large gardens.

In addition to the standard varieties our list includes the best of the late introductions.

Parcel Post paid on all orders and prompt delivery, satisfaction guaranteed as far as our responsibility goes.

We thank you for past favors and solicit your future business.

Austin’s Choice Collection of Exhibition and Cut Flower DAHLIAS

We have made up a fine collection of Exhibition Dahlias in all colors that are very beautiful, of the very largest that grows—6 for $5.00

Another collection of very choice medium size, all double and all rich colors—$3.50 per doz.

Another lot of select mixed decorative choice colors, as good as grow—$2.50 per doz.
